Vellines family name found in numerous descendants

The Vellines family was, relatively speaking, a late-comer to Isle of Wight — not showing up until the middle of the 18th century. Nor is the name found in any other Virginia county before that date, and the family is believed to have been of French extraction.

It first appears in the Isle of Wight records (DB8, p494) in a deed dated March 3, 1752, from John Clayton to Twaites Velline, for a tract of land on Blackwater. In John Clayton's will, dated 1756, he mentions his daughter Mary Vellines and names Twait Vellines as executor. In the 1st Virginia Census of 1783, Twaite Vellines listed four whites and eight blacks. His will dated May 16, 1796, was recorded June 4, 1798, and although he had four sons and has many known descendants living today, the name Vellines now appears only three or four times in the local telephone directory.

The children of Twaite and Mary Clayton Vellines were:

1. Armistead Vellines, died 1816 (of whom more later.)
2. Nathaniel Vellines, died in 1788, unmarried.

3. Caty Vellines, married William Ponsonby and had descendants.

4. Isaac Vellines, died 1819, married Sarah Moody, Mar. 20, 1790.

They had six children. Their oldest daughter, Wilmouth, was the second wife of Benjamin Drew and had a daughter Louisa Drew, 1818-1884, who married Maurice J. Langhorne, 1816-1890, on Dec. 2, 1839. Maurice J. and Louisa Drew Langhorne had eight children, one of whom, Maurice F. Langhorne, 1847-1921, married first Lillian Blair, 1860-1901, by whom he had (a) Maurice B. Langhorne and (b) Blair Langhorne; he married second Kate Vanderslice and had (c)

Katherine Langhorne who married Howard W. Gwaltney, (d) Curtis Langhorne (e) Nan Pett Langhorne who married Frederick Burnette and (f) Louise Langhorne who married first Rufus Smith, and second Owen Easley.

5. John Vellines, died 1807, married Olive Thomas Nov. 30, 1786, and had six children: (a) Joseph Vellines, 1792-1854, who served in the War of 1812 (b) Nancy Vellines (c) Rebecca Vellines (d) Mary Ann Vellines (e) Sally Vellines (f) Isaac Vellines, 1803-1843, who married Sally S. Waterfield, 1813-1843, and had John Armistead Vellines, born 1831, and Watson Vellines, born 1836 and others.

We go back now to Armistead Vellines, oldest son of Twaite and Mary Clayton Vellines. There is no record of his marriage in Isle of Wight County, but in the Va. Census of 1782 he lists five whites and three blacks. In his will, dated Apr. 25, 1812 and recorded July 1, 1816, he names his seven children. They were: 1. Polly Vellines who married William Latimore, son of Capt. Edward and Margaret Sinclair Latimore, of Smithfield, and nephew of Capt. John Sinclair. Captains Latimore and Sinclair were, at one time, next-door neighbors on Church Street in Smithfield and both served with distinction as privateers and with "Virginia Boats" during the Revolutionary War.

2. John Vellines, died in 1827, married Margaret, daughter of Robert Richard and Catherine Pope.

3. Francis Vellines, whose wife was Nancy. Their son Allen Vellines, 1812-1859, married Caroline Stevens of Southampton County, and had a daughter, Anna Elizabeth Vellines, born Nov. 19, 1843, who married John Thomas Gwaltney Feb. 20, 1857, and had the following children: Emma Louise born 1867, Frank Lecher born 1870, John Lafayette born 1871, James Lee born 1873, William Laster born 1875, Martin Leonard born 1878, Mary Anna born 1880, Berder Wrenn born 1882. Allen and Caroline Stevens Vellines also had a son, Junius Vellines, born 1845, who married Camilla Cofer, a widow and the daughter of William and Holly Chapman.

4. Merit R. Vellines.

5. Nathaniel Vellines who married Sally, daughter of Phillip Thomas Apr. 1, 1811.

6. Betsey Vellines, who married Robert Pope.

7. Hezekiah Vellines, died 1845, married Charlotte Chapman, Jan. 31, 1817. Their children were: (a) Caroline Vellines, died 1877, was married in 1842 to Wiley Jones Delk Jr., and their descendants, Barlows, Gales, Delks etc. were listed recently in an account of the descendants of Patsey Wrenn Delk-Cofer. (b) Mary E. Vellines, who was married Jan. 21, 1841, to Kene K. Chapman. She was his second wife and not the mother of his children. (c) Martha W. Vellines and (d) Andrew Jackson Vellines, 1828-1876, who was married on Dec. 19, 1860, to Mary Ann Rebecca Thomas Stott, born 1828, the daughter of John E. and Martha Stringfield Thomas, and the widow of Arthur B. Stott.

The descendants of Andrew Jackson (Jack) Vellines and Mary Ann Rebecca Thomas Stott Vellines were:

1. Richard D. Vellines.

2. Seymour J. Vellines.

3. Ella Vellines.

4. Leroy L. Vellines (died 1934) married Betty Edwards, and had (a) Bruce Jackson Vellines (died 1962) married T. H. Pattison. (b) Minnette James Vellines, born July 25, 1894, died Feb. 4, 1970, married T. Ashby Dashiell (1893-1958); their children are: Minnette Fisher Dashiell, born 1918, who married 1st Jack Garland Campbell, and 2nd Charles Starkey; and Thomas Ashby Dashiell Jr., born in 1923, married Margaret Saunders in 1949. (c) Gray Edward Vellines who married Jeanette and had a daughter Jean Frances Vellines, born in 1950.

5. Lelia Vellines married Richard L. Brewer (died 1947) of Suffolk, and had one daughter, Judith Brewer, who married Dr. F. Whitney Godwin (1896-1958). Their children are: Martha Brewer Godwin, born 1926, who married R. Curtis Saunders; and Judith Anne Godwin, born 1930, and lives in New York.

These are only a few of the descendants of Twaite and Mary Clayton Vellines. Much more information concerning the family can be found in the Isle of Wight County records.
